PERSONAL.

Misses R. P. and J. Edwin Rowe returned from a business trip to Evansville last Sunday.

Thos. L. Baird, who has been sick for a week or two, is up and at his post again in the Emporium.

Dr. W. B. Arnold, of Owensboro, is at the Hartford House prepared to do anything in the dental line.

W. A. Gibson, of the firm of Anderson & Gibson, Caneyville, was in town last week visiting his mother and sisters.

W. H. Barnes, of Caneyville, is in town visiting relatives and friends. We had the pleasure of a call from him while here.

We had the pleasure, last Friday, of a call from Mrs. Nannie Freeman and Miss Louie Hart, living in the vicinity of Concord, Ohio.

T. J. Vager, editor of the Litchfield Sentinel, was in town several days last week shaking hands with old friends and acquaintances.

C. M. Kimbley, of South Hartford, the gentlemanly storekeeper at Swangerson's distillery, is making many warm friends in this his new home—Burlington, Iowa.

Hon. J. E. Bennett, a prominent merchant of Paducah and Representative from Hancock county in the Legislature of 1877-79, was in town last Thursday. He complimented our paper by subscribing for a year.

Mrs. Ida B. Bates, accompanied by her son, Wm. Bates, left Monday morning for Hartford to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Mr. John Chapeze, who died at his home in that place last week. Mr. Chapeze was one of the most prominent lawyers of Southern Kentucky and an exemplary gentleman. His place in society and at the bar will be very difficult to fill.—Burlington Democrat.

—Thomas & Kimbley keep Hickey's pills. 21-17.

—Bargains in ladies' dresses at Anderson's Bazaar. 21-17.

—Go to Thomas & Kimbley's for Hickey's pills. 21-17.

—Cates Jones, Cates blankets, Cates linens, in exchange for wool at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Rust is damaging the wheat crop to some extent in this county. Some farmers report serious damage while others report much lighter.

—Thousands of ladies have found sudden relief from their woes by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the great remedy for diseases peculiar to females. Send for Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—Miss Zerelda Johnson, daughter of Allen Johnson, living near Pleasant Ridge, died last Saturday of consumption, after a long and painful illness. Miss Zerelda was a young lady, belted and beloved by all who knew her. Her demise has cast a gloom over the community in which she lived.

—The demand for Hickey's pills constantly increases.
—Mrs. Thomas Bond, of Caneyville, is quite low of typhoid fever and not expected to recover.

—The only place you will find Cates jeans and blankets in Ohio county, is at Anderson's Bazaar.

—Mr. Frank Fontress, of Caneyville, died last Saturday of typhoid fever after an illness of some 50 days.

—James Hunter, of the Bond Run neighborhood, died last Saturday morning of consumption. The funeral took place at McHenry last Monday.

—Just received at the Red Front 2 barrels Burns pure apple vinegar five years old. Try it and you'll use no other.

—Mr. J. K. Shaver presented us Monday with some of the finest specimens of strawberries we have ever seen grown in Kentucky. Thanks, Mr. Shaver.

—We tender thanks to Miss Lulu Hart, of Concord, for the gift of a beautiful bouquet, last Friday. Its beauty and brightness is only exceeded by the kind donor.

—Rev. J. H. Spruill, Lantree, Ky., writes: That calls have begun and people are calling for T. E. Hickey's pills on every side, as they find them the best remedy they can get. 21-17.

—The public are indebted to Dr. J. T. Ayer & Co., not only for their standard medical preparations, but also for improving the looks of the community by their inimitable Hair Vigor.

—Special prices will be offered on sewing machines for the next ten days at Anderson's Bazaar. If you need a sewing machine, you would do well to pay attention to this fact.

You may say what you please about blankets and quilts, but it is now a fact admitted by all, that Cates are decidedly the best in the market. Anderson's Bazaar always keeps a full stock in lowest prices.

—Mr. E. R. Daniels of Mansfield, Ohio, traveling Attorney for the Southern and Taylor Company was in Hartford last week, in the interests of his company. He honored this office with a call and a years subscription.

—Mr. Perry Wilkes, the Ohio county giant, died very suddenly of heart disease at his home near Rosine, last Friday, the 19th inst. He was a son-in-law of John Arnold, Esq., and was noted as being the tallest man in the county. He leaves a wife but no children.

—Mr. A. J. Brandeis representing the wholesale grocery firm of Stage & Heilman, 257 West Main Street, Louisville, Ky., will be in town to-day with a full line of samples, and will be pleased to receive the orders of our grocers. This is a good reliable firm and Mr. Brandeis is a liberal salesman.

—Lee, Lee for sale at the Red Front.
—Will a Lee read to-morrow night?
—Try that Vinegar at the Red Front.
—Pickens and turkeys at the Red Front.

—Wanted a good combined saddle and harness horse, call on Dr. J. T. Miller, Hartford, Ky.

—Don't forget Willoughby Reads to-morrow night. Half the proceeds will be given to the College.

—Baba, Kirk and Miss Didi Ward were married at the residence of James Westfield, on Sunday last.

—Weaver Mosley and Miss Rosa B. Dodson were married last Sunday, at the residence of Raman Dodson.

—Mr. E. Donnelly, of McHenry, proprietor of the mangle yard at that place, was in town last Monday.

—Wm. Alford knocked a man named Phelps through the window of Norris' saloon Monday—whiskey of course.

—Just received at the Red Front 2 barrels of pure apple vinegar, 5 years old. Try it and you will use no other. Highest price paid for wood and all kinds of country produce, at Rogers & King's, Buford, Ky. 20-17.

—Mr. J. S. Vaught, the Street Sweeper, is cleaning up the streets, sewers, etc. This is something very much needed.

—Born, to the wife of R. B. Culbertson, Rockport, Ky., Monday, May 15th, 1882, a son. Mr. Culbertson is so happy that he can't think of his own name at times.

—In to Rosentberg's corner store, and buy towels at 50c, each, but 50c 50c, and everything in dry goods and clothing notions, at less price than anywhere else in Hartford. Call and see and convince yourself.

—Don't forget that the Oliver Unified Flow, for sale by Griffin & Hine, is the best made in the world. As it is also the cheapest pump, the only thing left for you to do, is to come to Hartford and buy a pump from Messrs. Griffin & Hine.

—The supper given by the ladies of the Methodist Church last Monday night was a success. Although not as many were present as was expected, the occasion was one of great pleasure. The ladies have our thanks for a new lunch sent us Tuesday.

—Hofford & Cooper's mill at Cross-wood, was broken open last Thursday night, and about 200 pounds of flour and about 3 or 4 bushels of meal spilled. We suppose this was the same thief that stole Capt. Stanley's team at Seeley mines some time since.

—Strayed, from near Pleasant Hill church, about two weeks ago, one light bay filly, and one dark bay horse two years old each. A satisfactory reward will be paid for any information concerning their whereabouts.

—J. V. TENNER, Livemore, Ky.
—Married, Thursday, May 18th, 1882, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. F. Wallace of New creek, by Rev. Mr. Hawk, Mr. Wm. W. Pirtle and Miss Sarah C. Wallace. The young couple leave our best wishes as they journey down the stream of life.

—Married, at the residence of David Saunders, brother-in-law to the bride, Thursday, May 18th, 1882, by Rev. J. J. Bean, Mr. C. R. Crowder, of Rosine, and Miss Martha E. Leach. The parties leave our heartiest congratulations and best wishes for their future welfare and happiness.

—We have seen the question, "Do we believe in witchcraft?" beating around in so many of our exchanges that we rise to explain. The only witches in whom we believe are our beautiful girls who are healthy and ready because they use portulaca, or Talcum Vegetable Liver Powder. Sample bottles 25c, or one package for 50c.

—Willoughby Reads will be in Hartford tomorrow night, Thursday, May 25th, and will give another of his untold entertainments at the College Hall; half the proceeds to be donated to the College for the purpose of paying claudelers, of which it stands much in need. Let everybody turn out. Admission fifty cents, children half price.

—Hartford HERALD: Born, to the wife of Dr. S. J. Hines, of Chapel Hill, Tennessee, May 18th, 1882, a son—two pounds, mother doing well, father supremely happy.

—The mother died well, of course. The little child is coming by force of this advertisement. —Young.

—We learn that on Friday night last some thief or thieves broke into the Cromwell mill and stole about 200 pounds of flour, and also broke into a sack of coffee and barrel of sugar at the landing on the river and took what they wished and threw the balance in the river. No clue to thieves at last account.

—Alex. Foster and Cleve Barnett gave a stately festival at the residence of Mr. K. H. Howard, living in the No Creek vicinity last Saturday night. A band of music from Daviess county was present, and dispensed sweet music. Several young gentlemen from Hartford were present who spoke of the occasion as one of great pleasure.

—Parties intending to purchase Reapers, Mowing Machines and Hay-rakes will do well to see me before buying and save money.

—DAN F. TRACY.
—Col. J. J. Bumpus, of the great dry goods house of John Shillito & Co., of Cincinnati, will arrive in Hartford to-day. He comes for the purpose of closing some large contracts with Anderson's Bazaar, which have been under way for the past month. We understand that Messrs. Shillito's thall accepted the Bazaar man's proposition, and our readers may expect some big bargains in a few days. Col. Bumpus is a brother of General Q. D. Bumpus of revolutionary fame.

—Married, at the residence of Dr. D. B. Lewis, in Blue Ball, Hardin county, Ky., Tuesday, May 16th, 1882, by Rev. Joseph Barnett, Mr. J. H. Vetter and Miss Minnie O. Lewis.

—Attendants, Mr. Clint Mosberger and Miss Clara Owen, Mr. C. M. Peck and Miss Nettie Moreman, Mr. Charlie Lewis and Miss Maudie Moreman, Mr. James H. Anderson and Miss Ella Lewis.

—The Washington county correspondent of the Litchfield Sentinel, writes thus of Mr. Walker's speech in this county.

—Today was our primary election, causing a large crowd to be in town. E. Dudley Walker, of Hartford, Ohio county, a Democratic candidate for Congress, declared his candidacy in a very original manner, dealing heavy blows to the enemy, but in a style peculiarly his own. His speech was plain, logical, humorous and interspersed with fine bursts of oratory, marking him as a man of decided ability. No speech was ever more universally approved.

—In a word, he took by storm the entire audience.

—The Marion county correspondent of the same paper, writes thus of Mr. Walker's visit there.

—LEMANSON, Ky., May, 11th, 1882.
Hon. E. D. Walker, of Ohio county, a candidate for the nomination for Congress in this, the Fourth District, made a very favorable impression upon our people. He addressed a large and enthusiastic audience here, at the court house, Thursday evening. His arguments were forcible in behalf of the Democratic party. He has made many friends here, and will I predict, be a formidable candidate.

—Oranges, lemons, bananas and apples, just received at the Red Front.
—Having used T. E. Hickey's pills I endorse them as a sure cure, and mild and pleasant.
A. M. ALBENSON, M. D.

—The storm Sunday night blew down a great deal of the growing wheat. Some crops are so low that they can never possibly make anything.

—Harvey Donahoe who has been very sick for several weeks, is still very low and fears are entertained by his friends that he will not recover.

—Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., is rapidly acquiring an enviable reputation for the surprising cures which daily result from the use of her Vegetable Compound in all female diseases. Send to her for pamphlets.

—The Ramsey Wooden Mills, after having suspended for sometime, have resumed work. We have a large stock of all kinds of wooden goods on hand and capacity to make goods in quantities to supply all demands. We want a large quantity of wood, for which the market price will be paid.

—JAS. CAYE, RUMSEY, KY., May 1882. 20-21.

—Taken up as stray by Sam M. Evers, living on the Hartford and Point Pleasant road, near Point Pleasant, in Ohio county, on the 24th inst., four dogs aged about 15 months and marked with crop and hole in each ear and an upper bit in each leg, and which I have appraised at $16. Witness my hand this 25th day of April, 1882. W. L. HOWE, J. P. D. C.

—Circuit Court.
Convicted last Monday, Judge L. P. Little, and Commonwealth's Attorney, Joe Cox, present. The Grand Jury and Petit Jury stands as follows:

GRAND JURY.
Henry Whitely Foreman, G. H. Lamm, Thomas Phillips, Geo W. Snel, Stephen Woodward, Jesse N. Hudson, E. J. Bender, John Barnes, John I. Felix, R. F. Barber, A. R. Brown, J. B. Hinkle, W. H. Hudson, Sam'l G. Rhoades, B. E. Richardson, J. F. Carson.

PEIT JURY.
M. S. Baghead, Wm H. Fulkerson, John S. Brown, E. C. Renfro, H. C. Taylor, F. D. Sandifer, John Henry, R. P. Tucker, D. A. Miller, Jr., Remus Carter, James Gentry, Jas A. Stevens, M. P. Maxwell, J. S. Vates, John E. Wallace, Wm M. Hunter, R. J. Chapman, T. W. Funglin, D. A. Miller, J. J. Bled, J. W. Morris, D. W. Kinnell, J. W. Hoover, John Butler.

—But little business up to this time has been done.

—Commonwealth vs Anthony Maiden now on trial.

—Prices Reduced.
Prints, 4 cents per yard; Linens 1 cent per yard; quilting, 4 cents per yard; Jeans, 15 cents per yard; cottonades, 15 cents per yard; silvets, 12 cents per yard; brown cotton, 8 cents per yard; broad goods, $1.00 per pair; men's saddles $4.75; wagon harness, $1.50; and all other things in proportion at 20-21.

—Log Tenne Wanted.
I want to hire five teams, log wagons, and drivers to haul logs. I will give good wages, pay cash, and constant employment for the right kind of drivers, teams and wagons.

JOHN BROWER, Beaver Dam, Ky.
—Married Licenses.
The following is a list of the marriage licenses granted by the County Clerk since our last report.

J. V. Crow, Susan C. Beadfield.
W. W. Hirtle, Cordelia Wallace.
Geo. F. Gray, Prudence J. Kelly.
Ben Miller, Lucy Wedding.
Samuel I. Latham, Elizabeth D. McSherry.

John H. Noe, Lizzie Neighbors.
Jas. L. Hicks, Charley M. Basham.
C. G. Crawford, Margaret E. Leach.
R. P. Klerk, Martha J. Ward.
W. W. Mosley, Rosa B. Dodson.
T. C. Fields, Ella Graham.

—Strayed.
Strayed from Hartford, Ky., Saturday evening, May 18, a light iron horse about five years old with a thin dark mane and tail, about three hands high. When last heard of he was about two miles below Hartford making his way towards Green River. A satisfactory reward will be paid upon his recovery or any information concerning him. H. P. TAYLOR, 20-17.

—Mrs. Jesse James.
The widow of the noted out-law, since the "removal" of her husband, has been so besieged by reporters and publishers that, in self-protection, she has been compelled to publish a sworn statement denying that she has authorized the use of her name in connection with any pretended history of her husband's life.

—In this connection it may not be out of place to suggest that persons desiring to get at the facts in the lives of all the great American highwaymen would do well to examine Col. J. W. Hine's famous "Border Outlaws," which has just been revised and a new edition published from new plates throughout. See advertisement elsewhere in this paper. 20-17.
